Procedure for Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in consultative status with ECOSOC to reserve a meeting room at the United Nations Office at Geneva (UNOG)

In accordance with the ECOSOC Resolution 1996/31, which governs the consultative arrangements between the United Nations (UN) and NGOs, accommodation may be provided for conferences or smaller meetings of NGOs with consultative status.

Meeting rooms may only be granted for activities that are in line with the UN purposes and objectives, as defined in the Charter, and that are strictly non-commercial. Rooms may be made available to NGOs accredited at UNOG for the following purposes:

- Meetings, seminars, conferences and consultations with the Secretariat and/or Governments and/or other Non-Governmental Organizations on matters related to the concerns of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations (ECOSOC).
- Meetings, seminars, conferences, and consultations in support of the UN mandate and activities.

The NGO Liaison Unit at UNOG is the focal point for NGOs requesting a meeting room at the Palais des Nations. Official United Nations activities have priority; therefore, the availability of conference rooms shall be without guarantee. UNOG may withdraw its agreement at any time and without incurring any liability in that regard. UNOG reserves the right to refuse or cancel any meeting that it considers to be inconsistent with the objectives of the United Nations.

To make a room reservation, the below terms and conditions governing the reservation of meeting rooms at the Palais des Nations and the room booking form (page 4) should be filled in, signed and returned by email, together with the required concept note and a provisional program of the event, to the NGO Liaison Unit at unoq.ngo@un.org, at least 6 weeks prior to the planned date of the meeting.

Information on how NGO representatives can manage the registrations to their meeting at the Palais des Nations on the Indico platform, will be provided to assist NGOs in preparing for their meeting.

Terms and conditions governing the use of UN premises by NGOs in consultative status with ECOSOC for the organization of meetings at the United Nations Office at Geneva (UNOG)

General Provisions

- NGO meetings at the Palais des Nations are organized within the framework of the general guidelines for NGO representatives accredited at UNOG. The NGO Liaison Unit reserves the right to cancel the meeting and deny the possibility to reserve other conference rooms for the NGO in case of non-compliance with these terms and conditions.
- 2. NGO meetings are organized neither jointly nor in partnership with the UN. The assistance provided by the NGO Liaison Unit at UNOG is only logistical.
- 3. Rooms cannot be made available for NGOs to conduct their own organizational business or advance their own purposes and aims.
- 4. NGO meetings at the Palais des Nations should be strictly non-commercial. Commercial activities, such as charging entrance and/or enrolment fees for participation in NGO meetings, sale of NGO materials and publication, sale of NGO-branded souvenirs etc. are not authorized.
- 5. The meeting organizer should comply with the deadlines set by the NGO Liaison Unit for the submission of the meeting room booking form and requested documentation, as well as for the requests of services provided by UNOG, which may include payment for additional services.

Partnerships

- 6. The NGO Liaison Unit does not facilitate meetings organized jointly by NGOs with Permanent or Observer Missions to UNOG, with UN entities, nor side events to UN conferences.
- 7. For all meetings organized jointly with a Permanent or Observer Mission to the UN, or a UN entity, the meeting room should be reserved by the respective coorganizing entity.
- 8. For side-events taking place on the margins of UN meetings, such as the Human Rights Council, NGOs should contact the respective Secretariat to reserve rooms.

Virtual conferencing

- 9. The use of virtual conferencing platforms, such as Zoom or WebEx, inside UNOG Conference Rooms is governed by OICT Cybersecurity policies and UNOG's guidelines on virtual conferencing in the UN Secretariat. In Geneva, the use of such platforms is limited to UNOG accounts, with UNOG technicians performing the set-up and configuration.
- 10. NGOs can by no means use their individual accounts. For NGO hybrid meetings which the NGO Liaison Unit facilitates, only the desktop Video/Audio Conference call application WebEx can be used, against payment.

Cost and payment

- 11. The reservation of meeting rooms at the Palais des Nations is free of charge for NGOs. However, some meeting related services may generate a cost.
- 12. If a cost estimate is issued by UNOG to the meeting organizer, the latter will pay from the bank account of the organizing NGO at least 3 weeks before the date of the event. Payment from personal bank accounts or from any third party will not be accepted.
- 13. Should an NGO cancel its meeting less than two weeks prior to the meeting date, the full amount will be charged to the NGO.

Use of premises, conference rooms and related facilities

- 14. Meetings must be held during UNOG regular meeting hours, namely, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m., on working days.
- 15. NGOs are not permitted to host award ceremonies at UNOG.
- 16. The display and advertisement of names and logos of private sector companies is not allowed.
- 17. Smoking is not permitted inside UNOG premises.
- 18. Eating and drinking are not permitted in the conference rooms.
- 19. The meeting organizer will be held liable for all damage connected with the use of UNOG premises or occurring on UNOG grounds during their events.

Information materials and media coverage

- 20. Distribution of NGO material is not permitted at UNOG, in all public places.
- 21. Visual recording at the meeting is permitted upon written notification to the NGO Liaison Unit, provided that the Chair of the meeting has informed the participants at the start of the meeting.
- 22. Non-accredited journalists can attend as participants, invited by the NGO. However, they cannot perform their functions as journalists.
