UN-SWAP 2.0 PERFORMANCE BY INDICATOR (2021-2022)

PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS IN 2022

Most significant gains

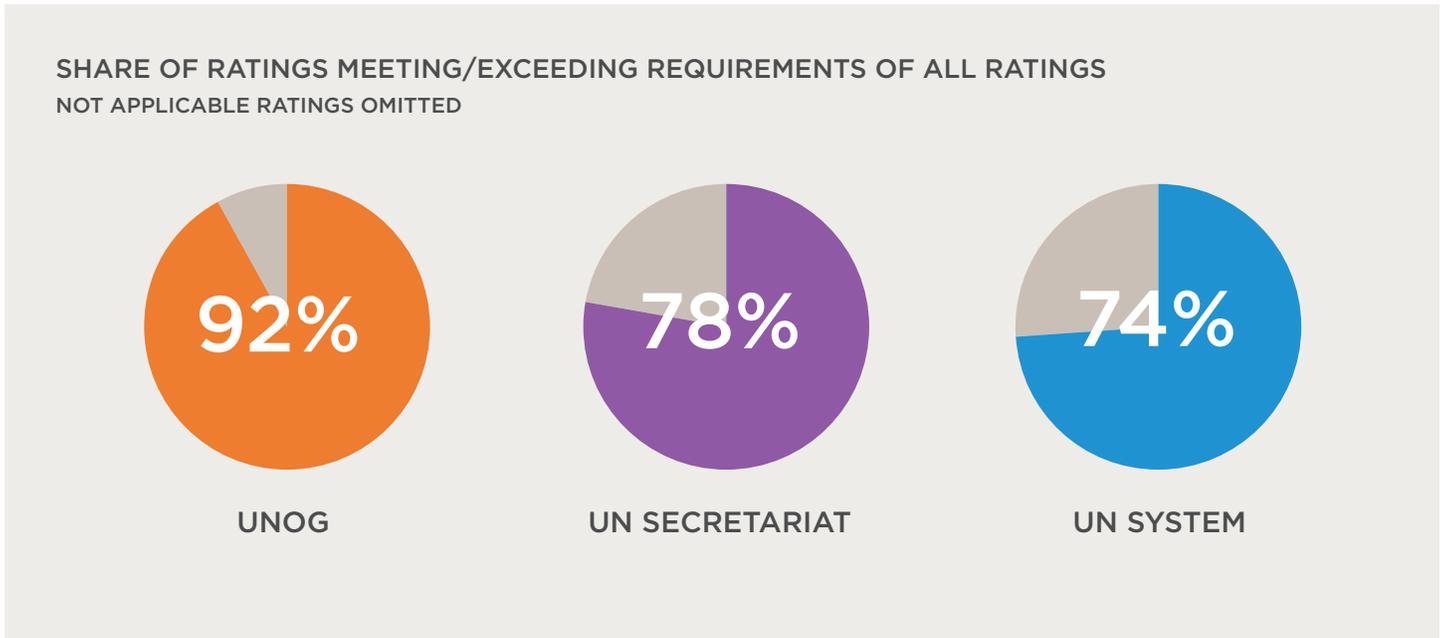

- In 2022, UNOG exceeded requirements for three indicators and met them for another eight.
- UNOG newly met requirements for two indicators: Equal representation of women and Coherence.

Areas for improvement

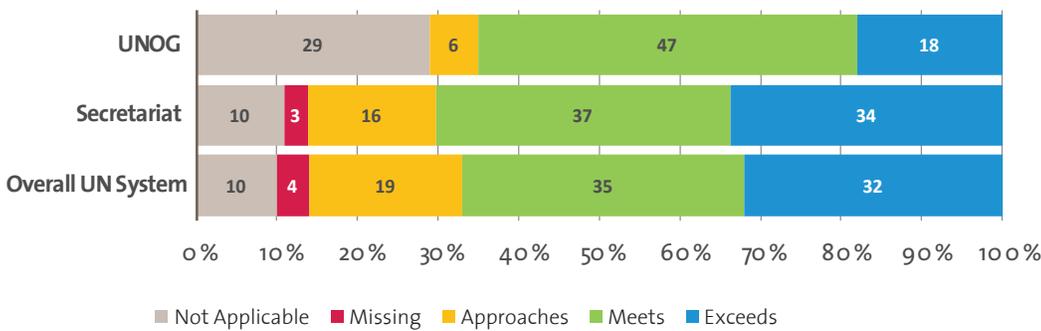

- UN Women encourages UNOG to prioritize the remaining indicator rated as approaching requirements: Financial resource tracking.

* Performance Indicators 5 on Audit and 8 on Gender-responsive performance management are jointly reported for all UN Secretariat entities by OIOS and DMSPC, respectively.

COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS FOR UNOG

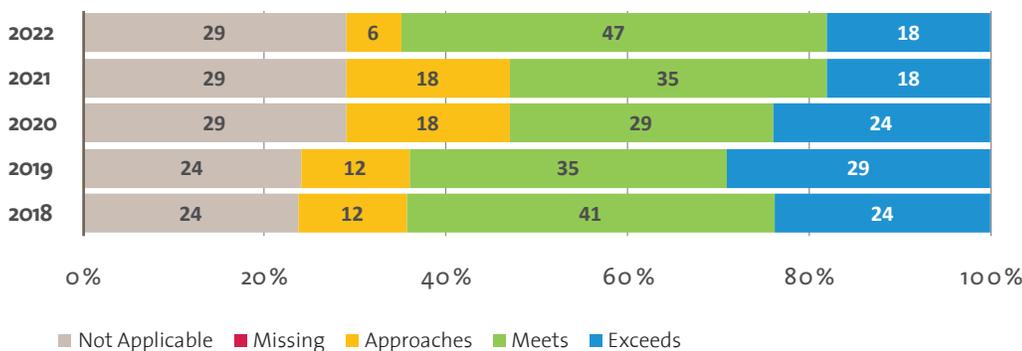

COMPARISON WITH THE UN SECRETARIAT AND THE OVERALL UN SYSTEM

UNOG’s performance is in line with the that of the overall UN system and similar entities.

As an entity with a mainly administrative focus, UNOG rated significantly more indicators as not applicable than the average for the UN Secretariat and the overall UN system.

UNOG, COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS OF RATINGS BY YEAR

In 2022, UNOG met requirements for two additional indicators when compared with the previous year’s results.

Commendably, since the start of UN-SWAP 2.0, UNOG has not missed requirements for any applicable indicators.
