

How can NGO representatives attend meetings and conferences at the Palais des Nations?

IS YOUR NGO IN CONSULTATIVE STATUS WITH ECOSOC?

SPECIALIZED NGOs AND NGOs IN ASSOCIATION WITH WHO, UNCTAD, DGC AND OTHER UN ENTITIES

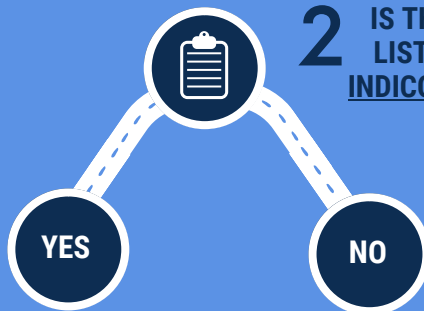

may be invited to participate to UN meetings and conferences for their expertise or partnership.

1 ANNUAL ACCREDITATION
Each year, NGOs have to renew their annual accreditation at UNOG. To do so, follow the steps by clicking on the following links: Access & Request Grounds Pass. Temporary accreditation may also be requested.

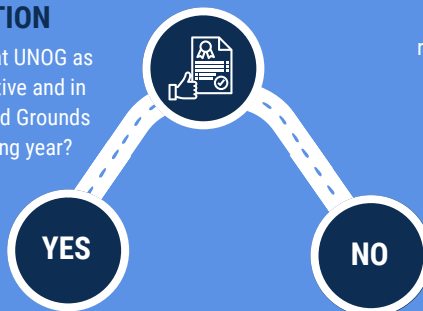

For more information, please read the conditions of participation, or contact the meeting organizer.

2 IS THE MEETING LISTED ON THE INDICO PLATFORM?

The meeting could be private. For more information, please refer to the conditions of participation, or contact the meeting organizer.

3 REGISTRATION
Are you accredited at UNOG as an NGO representative and in possession of a valid Grounds Pass for the ongoing year?

While in possession of a UNOG grounds pass, NGO representatives obtain access to the Palais des Nations premises. However, most meetings and UN events require online registration and approval, through the UNOG online registration platform Indico.

Register on the UNOG online registration platform Indico to the meeting of interest and wait to receive your confirmation email containing your QR code to access UN premises.
